

Merit Award Winners

The following entrants were selected as merit award winners in the 13th Annual Lions International Peace Poster Contest for best depicting the contest's theme, "United in Peace." Future issues of THE LION will highlight the remaining winners.

Sabrina Chu, 12

Hillsborough-Montgomery, New Jersey, Lions Club
United States

"In order to preserve peace in our world, all races and cultures must make an attempt to nurture peace. We all have the ability and opportunity to keep peace alive."

Kristin Mask, 12

Jacksboro, Texas, Lions Club
United States

"Peace is an objective that is difficult to achieve, but we must have it to save lives, cultures and progress."

Anamarija Mirtic, 12

Novo Mesto Lions Club
Slovenia

"I am too young to remember war in my country, Slovenia, but I am old enough to understand that some children are not as happy as I am. I wish every child would have a chance to grow up united in peace."

Andrea Carolina Larrauri, 12

Miraflores Arco Lions Club
Peru

"It is important that everybody enjoys peace and is united in joy."
